

Titles, Websites & Other References from Michael Cart's May 9, 2008 Podcast

Listed in order mentioned

Paul Constant. "Flying off the Shelves" in "The Stranger" (Seattle newspaper). 2/26/08

Charles Bukowski

Jim Thompson

Philip K. Dick

William S. Burroughs

Any graphic novel

SIMON & SCHUSTER (publisher):

PENDRAGON by D. J. MacHale (graphic version by Carla Speed McNeil, creator of FINDER)

CHIGGERS by Hope Larson, to be published by Ginee Seo Books

SONS OF LIBERTY in "Before They Were Famous" (based on the Childhood of Famous Americans series) and LITTLE ROCK NINE in "Turning Points," both to be published by Aladdin Books

Stephanie Zvirin. "Series Publishers Go Graphic." Booklist 3/15/08 ("Spotlight on Graphic Novels" issue).

Rosen, Stone Arch, Capstone, Abdo, and Lerner (series publishers mentioned)

"Comics in the Classroom," New York Times editorial, 1/3/08

"Superman Finds New Fans among Reading Instructors" by Elissa Gootman in the New York Times for 12/26/07.

Mentioned are the comic Books Project and the Maryland Department of Education's comics-based literacy curriculum. Also Francoise Mouly and Art Spiegelman.

Art Spiegelman. MAUS

Michael Kimmelman. "No Laughs, No Thrills, and Villains All Too Real." New York Times, 2/27/08

THE SEARCH by Eric Heuvel

Fredric Wertham. SEDUCTION OF THE INNOCENT
William Gaines, EC Comics, “Tales from the Crypt,” “The Vault of Horror” and MAD magazine

David Hajdu. THE TEN CENT PLAGUE.
Also: LUSH LIFE and POSITIVELY 4TH STREET

Mark Evanier. KIRBY: King of Comics